Customer Reviews

I enjoyed both of these cookbooks. I had heard of dutch ovens but didn't know you cooked by using hot coals placed on the lid. The title of the cast iron cooking book is a little misleading since it mentions a paleo diet. The recipes are great, but many of the ingredients are modern and not what I'd consider paleo.

in this offer there is two books. they have 60 recipes in total. the first book cast iron has a 31 paleo diet recipes. one meal for each day of the month using cast iron skillets. the recipes is very delicious. I tried two of them so far. the first one is Pan Seared Steak. It was a marvellous recipe.

the second one is Lemon Garlic Shrimps. this one is the favourite for my wife. she loved it. i will try the other recipes. the second book the dutch oven contain 35 recipes. i will give a try to breakfast berger. there is also other delicious recipes i will try it in the future, i think this is a fair deal two books in a price of one. they both have more than 60 recipes. I loved these two books.

Lots of nice recipes to choose from. The first book contains all kinds of recipes for beef, chicken, seafood , fish, besides several goodies for breakfasts, snacks and desserts. I love to cook mostly dishes with chicken, seafood and fish, but for my husband occasionally prepare beef dishes, he loves them a lot. The second book is a guide into cooking in Dutch oven, I've got a nice variety of recipes, but mostly I cook them over the weekends or during some holidays. Vegetarian options are mostly likable at this time, so yummy and healthy!

Never got it, I don't use kindle
